Silver Medal of Valor

For your courageous quick actions: while driving on Highway 280 at night, you saw a badly damaged Jeep resting on its roof and pulled over.

You checked on the Jeep's occupants and assessed that they were injured but able to exit the rear of the vehicle.

You observed a badly damaged BMW down an embankment, which was engulfed in flames and had flipped back onto its wheels settling in weeds three- to four-feet high.

An intense brush fire burned around the BMW concealing the whereabouts of the driver.

You heard the victim but had to travel through thick brush and around the fire to find her. When you finally located the victim, she was face up on the ground with multiple bloody injuries and paralyzed legs.

The fire burned quickly toward you and the victim while flames and smoke intensified and threatened to block your only exit.

You could not move the woman by yourself but were able to direct others to assist you, immobilizing the victim's head with your jacket and moving her to safety.

You stayed at the scene to assist, placing flares around the accident, briefing first responders and directing traffic.

Your heroic response prevented a severely injured woman from burning to death.

Sr. Dep. Michael Clauzel #2021

Bronze Medal of Valor

For your courageous quick actions: while at Pacifica Beach, you learned that a wave had swept two people into the ocean. With no first responders on the scene, you got your Boogie Board and fins and swam with another bystander to the female victim who could not swim to shore due to the undertow. You succeeded in saving her, but her husband could not be found.

Dep. Kevin Quinn #1449

02/09/2016

For your heroic actions while traveling on Highway 80: while following a truck that hit multiple vehicles between Highways 50 and 80 until the vehicle was disabled. A CHP Officer arrived on the scene. The suspect got out of his truck, punched the officer and continued punching and stomping her while she was on the ground. You stopped your vehicle, engaged the suspect, hitting him so hard he landed on the ground and then wrestled with him to keep him down. A bystander joined you and kept the suspect down until other CHP Officers arrived.

For your heroic actions off-duty and in your personal vehicle: you saw a brutal domestic violence attack on a pregnant woman. As you rescued the woman, the angry assailant started attacking your passenger until you drew your weapon. You drove to a safe location and secured medical attention for the woman's injuries.

Dep. Scott Osha #1893 02/08/16

For your quick heroic actions off-duty in San Francisco: you saw a man carrying a semi-automatic gun threaten to kill some people. You called 911, tracked the man's movements and flagged down an SFPD Sergeant. As the suspect crouched between two cars, you pointed him out to the sergeant who detained the suspect. The suspect no longer had the gun, but you located it.

Deputy Ronald Rosado #1859 02/11/2016

Bronze Medal of Valor

For your heroic actions off-duty: while stopped on the Antioch Bridge you heard there was a man with a gun and knife. You cautiously advanced, located the man on the outside railing and began talking to him. Seeing he had no weapon, you realized he was suicidal. Along with other law enforcement officers, you formed a human rescue chain, grabbing the man as he let go and pulling him back over the railing. You risked your life to save another.
